DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kawakatsu et al. (US 4,652,789).

Regarding claim 1, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp in figure 1 comprising: an outer lamp envelope (item 1) enclosing a light-transmitting inner lamp vessel in a gastight manner, a light source (item 6) being arranged in the inner lamp vessel, an optical interference film (item 2) being provided on at least part of an inner surface of the outer lamp envelope or on at least part of an outer surface of the inner lamp vessel (see FIG. 1), the optical interference film comprising a plurality of alternating high and low refractive index layers (see FIG. 2, items 2L and 2H), the material of the high refractive index layer comprising substantially zirconium oxide (column 2, lines 32-37).

Regarding claim 2, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp as claimed in claim 1, characterized in that the ratio of the volume V_{ilv} of the inner lamp vessel to the volume V_{ole} outer lamp envelope is: $V_{ilv}/V_{ole} \leq 0.5$. The Examiner notes that since Kawakatsu discloses the structural limitations as claimed by Applicant, that the inequality as claimed by Applicant is met as well.

Regarding claim 3, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp as claimed in claim 2, characterized in that the ratio of the volume V_{ilv} of the inner lamp vessel to the volume $V_{sub.ole}$ outer lamp envelope is: $V_{ilv}/V_{ole} \leq 0.25$. The Examiner notes that since Kawakatsu discloses the structural limitations as claimed by Applicant, that the inequality as claimed by Applicant is met as well.

Regarding claim 4, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp as claimed in claim 1, characterized in that the optical interference film is arranged on at least part of the outer surface of the inner lamp vessel (see FIG. 1).

Regarding claim 5, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp as claimed in claim 1, characterized in that the material of the low refractive index layer comprises substantially silicon oxide (column 2, lines 32-37).

Regarding claim 6, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp as claimed in claim 1, characterized in that the optical interference film transmits visible radiation and reflects infrared radiation or the optical interference film changes the color temperature of the electric lamp (column 1, lines 40-46).

Regarding claim 7, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp as claimed in claim 1, characterized in that the light source comprises at least one incandescent lamp body or an arc of a discharge lamp in operation (see FIG. 1).

Regarding claim 8, Kawakatsu discloses an electric lamp as claimed in claim 1, characterized in that the electric lamp comprises a halogen lamp (column 2, lines 49-53).
